- (b) the applicant is an undischarged insolvent; or
- (c) three years period has not expired from the date of conviction of the applicant under the Act.

(3) The Licensing Authority shall also refuse to grant a licence for a particular declared goods, if a licence has already been issued to another Trader at the same place of business for the declared goods for which the applicant has applied for.

8. Addition and alteration to Licence.- The Licensing Authority may make necessary additions, deletions and alterations in the entries made in the licence relating to godown, place of business, names of partners, declared goods etc. either on the application of the licensee or suo-moto:

Provided that the licence holder or his representative shall give intimation in writing to the licensing authority about the changes in partnership, ownership etc. within a period of sixty days from the date of such change.

9. Contravention of conditions of licence.- No Licensee or his agent or servant or any other person acting on his behalf shall contravene any clauses of the order or the terms and conditions of the licence.

10. Suspension and Cancellation of licence.- (1) If any Licensee or his agent or servant or any other person acting on his behalf contravenes any of the terms and conditions of the licence, then without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against him under the Act, his licence may be cancelled or suspended with regard to one or more declared goods by an order in writing of the Licensing Authority and an entry will be made in his licence relating to such suspension or cancellation.

(2) No order of cancellation shall be made under this clause unless Licensee has been given a reasonable opportunity of hearing against proposed cancellation but during the pendency or in contemplation proceeding of cancellation of licence, the licence can be suspended by an order stating reasons in writing for a period of thirty days without affording the opportunity of hearing to the Licensee, thereafter the suspension period may be extended up to ninety days, if deemed fit after hearing and recording reasons thereof and the case shall be finally disposed off within this extended period.

11. Disposal of declared goods when licence is suspended or cancelled or renewal is refused.- When a licence issued under this Order is cancelled, suspended, or renewal is refused, the stocks of declared goods available with the Trader at the time of such cancellation or suspension, or refusal of renewal, shall be disposed of by the Trader within fifteen days from the date of receipt of the order of cancellation or suspension or refusal, as the case may be, at the price not exceeding the price fixed under the provisions of the Act.

12. Consequences of conviction.- Where a licensee has been convicted by a Court of law for the contravention of any order made under section 5 of the Act, the Licensing Authority shall, by order in writing, cancel his licence:

Provided that where such conviction is set aside in any appeal or revision, the Licensing Authority may, on an application by the Trader whose licence has been cancelled, restore the licence to such Trader.

13. Forfeiture of Security Deposit.- (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of clause 10, if the Licensing Authority is satisfied that the Licensee contravened any of the terms and conditions of the licence and that a forfeiture of the security deposit is called for, it may, after giving the Licensee a reasonable opportunity of being heard, by order, forfeit the whole or any part of security deposited by him and communicate a copy of the order to the Licensee.

(2) The Licensee shall, if the amount of security at any time falls short of amount specified in clause 6, forthwith deposit, on being required by Licensing Authority to do so, further security to make up the deficiency.

(3) Upon due compliance by the Licensee of all obligations under the licence the amount of security or such part thereof which is not forfeited as aforesaid, shall be refunded to the Licensee after the termination of the licence.
